PRESS RELEASE - For Immediate Release

June 24, 2024

Mid America Hires Barnes and Ferguson

Jefferson City, MO – Mid America Bank is pleased to announce Trisha Barnes and Anastasia Ferguson have joined the Bank as VP, Treasury Management Officers. In this role, Barnes and Ferguson will be responsible for cultivating client relationships as well as administration and development of the Bank’s business services and treasury management products.

Trisha Barnes has 15 years of banking experience and has served in a variety of Business Development positions across various industries. Barnes is passionate about understanding her client’s needs and working to find their business solutions. Barnes and her husband reside in Jefferson City and have four children. She is a committed member of several local organizations, some of which include Jefferson City Chamber of Commerce, Columbia Chamber of Commerce, Jefferson City Area Young Professionals, and Big Brothers Big Sisters Advisory Board.

Anastasia Ferguson has worked her way through the banking industry starting as a teller and has most recently served in a Treasury Management position. Ferguson is excited about getting to know her clients and celebrating business successes with them. Ferguson and her husband reside in Fulton and have four children. She is passionate about United Way, Rise Up where she serves as Treasurer, and the Super Sam Foundation. She is also on the board for State Technical College of Missouri.

Mid America Bank is delighted to welcome both Trisha & Anastasia to the team. If your business needs business services such as business checking, collection solutions, payable solutions, fraud protection, or cash concentration solutions, reach to the team via our website. Trisha & Anastasia are ready to serve as your partner to help you and your business succeed.
