Mid America Bank Hires Kalista as New Loan Officer

Jefferson City, MO – Mid America Bank has announced that Brandon Kalista has joined the team as AVP, Loan Officer. Kalista will reside at the Columbia branch where he'll be responsible for evaluating, authorizing, recommending approval of, and closing loan applications for consumer, residential, commercial, and agricultural loans.

In this role, Kalista is looking forward to engaging with local investors and entrepreneurs as they invest in our community. He aims to help his clients navigate the process of securing a loan. Before joining Mid America Bank, Kalista was previously employed at a local community bank and has over 14 years of banking experience.

Kalista and his family reside in Columbia where he is involved in his local church. In addition, he has a passion for his community and enjoys being a part of its growth and development.
